

THE GRAMMY MUSEUM'S JANE ORTNER EDUCATION AWARD PROGRAM

FREE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP FOR TEACHERS

Saturday, April 22, 2017
9:30 AM – 1:00 PM
Led by Nicole Naditz

GRAMMY Museum at L.A. LIVE
800 West Olympic Boulevard
Los Angeles, CA 90015

Noteworthy Language: Building Literacy and Communicative Proficiency through Authentic Music

Music builds language. During this hands-on workshop, you will experience varied strategies for pre-listening, guiding students while listening, and post-listening activities to build fluency and creative expression. You will leave this session with new ideas for your own music collection. You will also have access to the complete, award-winning curriculum guide with even more suggestions for using music to foster language proficiency and to deepen students' cultural knowledge.

RSVP required. To register, please visit <http://bit.ly/naditz422>

Nicole Naditz is a multi-award winning French teacher at Bella Vista High School in Fair Oaks, CA. She has taught French to grades 3-12 (including AP French), and holds National Board and Google certifications. The inaugural recipient of the GRAMMY Museum's Jane Ortner Education Award, Nicole's other honors include: ACTFL National Language Teacher of the Year (2015), SWCOLT Language Teacher of the Year (2014), Finalist - California State Teacher of the Year (2012).